

NEXT HUB

2022 CALENDAR

OTTERBEIN
UNIVERSITY

Monthly Networking

Interdistrict Teacher Support Group

Addressing difficult topics facing today's teachers, such as thoughtfully implementing social justice initiatives and the challenges of teaching during the pandemic.

April 2022-March 2023

Investigate Your District (a collaborative oral history)

Inviting Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion (DEI) directors, diversity committee representatives, and other stakeholders to participate in a collaborative effort to tell the history of Central Ohio school districts.

April

Millennial Teachers of Color book club

Led by Professor Grace McDaniel, participants will read and discuss the book Millennial Teachers of Color. Designed to be a professional development and networking opportunity.

May

End-of-Year Gathering with All-Star Teacher Panel

Central Ohio teachers are invited to join us in conversation with colleagues from around the metropolitan area.

June-July

NEXt Hub Summer Read: Fugitive Pedagogy

Bi-monthly discussions will be held in anticipation of Jarvis R. Givens' September lecture on his book Fugitive Pedagogy.

July

Erase the Space classroom exchange information session

Teachers interested in facilitating classroom learning exchanges will meet for an informational session and classroom pairing for the 2022-23 school year.

September

NEXt Hub Speaker Series: Jarvis R. Givens

All Central Ohio teachers are invited to join us in conversation with the author of Fugitive Pedagogy, Jarvis R. Givens. Join us to light our collective fire at the beginning of the school year!

September-October

Support Through Story (a network for teachers of color)

Professor Grace McDaniel will facilitate the conversations for teachers of color to share their experiences from across Central Ohio.